DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C.

121:

2. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention as listed in claim 5: compositions comprising first and second agents selected from the group consisting of therapeutic agents, biological monitoring agents, biological imaging agents, targeting agents and agents capable of identifying a specific signature of cellular abnormality.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species of the composition of the invention, for prosecution on the merits, to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, 5 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that are elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by

Art Unit: 1635

37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

3. Once the species of dendrimer complex of the invention has been elected, the first and second agents of the invention are subject to the following further species elections.

4. Claims 7, 8, 9, 13, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 20, 22 and 25 are generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising the therapeutic agents listed in claim 7, the protecting groups listed in claim 8, the chemotherapeutic agents listed in claim 9, the oncogenes listed in claim 12, the factors listed in claim 13, the tumor suppressors listed in claim 14, the cytokines listed in claim 15, the receptors listed in claim 16, the imaging agents listed in claim 20, the targeting agents listed in claim 22 and the receptor ligands listed in claim 25. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed. The election of the further species of the invention must be consonant with the election of the species of dendrimer complex of the invention as set forth above.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above, have acquired a separate status in the art and would require divergent searches of patent and non-patent literature databases placing an undue administrative burden on the examiner, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
